Journey Of the Creator...

Kundan Kumar

Kundan Kumar is a student of NIVH. He is blind and is from a poor family of Samastipur, Bihar. In this lockdown, he was free and was looking for some source of income, therefore he created designer candles in a hope to earn something from their sale. But even after investing his all saving he was not able to sell majority of his products.

We request you to take a look to his products and purchase them or donate some amount, your small help will save Kundan's livelihood.
